Los Angeles, California*August 5, 2002*TO: All Licensees Under the California Residential Mortgage Lending Act*RE: Mortgage Bankers Advisory Committee

The Department of Corporations is soliciting interested individuals to serve on the Mortgage Bankers Advisory Committee to discuss issues impacting the mortgage banking industry and the administration of the California Residential Mortgage Lending Act. The Committee will meet at least twice each year. Its members, which are appointed by the California Corporations Commissioner, serve for a term of one or two years. Members of this committee cannot be compensated or reimbursed for expenses by either the Department of Corporations or the State of California.

At this time we anticipate that the committee will be comprised of individuals representing licensees under the California Residential Mortgage Lending Act, a representative from the California Mortgage Bankers Association, a consumer representative, an attorney at law and a certified public accountant experienced in the mortgage banking industry. We are seeking industry representatives from large, medium and small companies as well as lenders and servicers, all of which are licensed under the California Residential Mortgage Lending Act. The Department's staff will participate as well.

If you or someone you know meets the qualifications for one of the positions listed above and would like to serve on the committee please send a letter indicating your desire to serve, the position for which you are qualified and a resume to:

Louisa A. Broudy
